SUPPLEMENT TO REPORTENOIX

- Command on 15 June 1950, reserve officers who were recently on maneuvers were not released from active duty. Instead, they were issued new uniforms and will be retained in their units "indefinitely".
- 2. As of 15 June 1950, cultural-social events in the officers' clubs of the Nis Military District were forbidden, and have been replaced by instruction periods on the subjects of military service and military training, which must be attended by all active and reserve officers.
- 3. According to current orders, all reserve officers under the jurisdiction of the Nis Military District must report to their respective officers' clubs every Saturday night. According to the latest order, all reserve officers attached to the Zajecar garrison must report to the local commander every day.
- 4. All reserve non-commissioned officers of the Nis Military District were ordered by their military sectors to be in a state of constant preparedness for mobilization.
